Job Description

Job Title	Youth Development Manager
Department	Youth Development
Reports to	Head of Youth Development
Location	Cledara Abbey Stadium
Salary	£34,000 to £40,000 subject to skills and experience
Hours	40 hours per week, worked flexibly, to include weekday evenings and matchdays
Role Summary	The Youth Development Manager shall have overall responsibility for the strategic leadership, management, and delivery of the Club's Youth Development Pathway. This includes oversight of the Regional Development and Elite Centres, the Female Emerging Talent Centre, and the Male and Female College Programmes. The post holder's primary focus will be to ensure that all budgetary, recruitment, and participation targets are achieved, while delivering programmes that operate to the highest standards of professionalism, safeguarding, welfare, and player development.
Key Job Outcomes	• Oversee and manage all full-time staff within the department, providing support for communication, operations, and programme delivery. • Handle daily department operations, including organising and leading meetings, delegating tasks, and ensuring efficiency and high standards. • Identify future staffing needs and aspirations for the department as necessary. • Champion the club's mission, vision, and values, ensuring they are embedded in the youth development department. • Conduct staff appraisals to clarify expectations and goals for each season, while supporting professional development. • Working in collaboration with the retail department to ensure player kit packs are sold and delivered in line with budgets and customer expectations. • To plan, manage and deliver all relevant tours in a safe and compliant manner, ensuring adherence to agreed budgetary targets and organisational standards. • To be responsible for the design, development and delivery of a coaching syllabus, ensuring effective teaching and learning outcomes. • To design, implement and maintain effective systems and processes to support operational delivery and continuous improvement.

	• Collaborate with youth development to ensure safeguarding policies and standards are consistently upheld. • Monitor and assess the collection of essential data for all youth development programs. • To support the achievement of departmental financial objectives by overseeing the development, monitoring and evaluation of budgets, and by supporting programme managers in achieving their own agreed budget targets. • Assist with payroll processing as required. • Effectively manage time to ensure that all tasks are delivered in a timely manner. • Attend relevant management and accounts meetings to review departmental performance. • Lead the recruitment and management of staff for each program within the department. • Support the organisation and management of youth development tours. • Ensure regular assessments of player progression are conducted, recorded, and used to enhance the club's youth development pathways. • To help develop high performance habits and values within the staff and players thus contributing to the development of a high-performance culture. • Deliver exceptional customer service while maintaining clear communication across all departments. • Promote and market club activities and programs in collaboration with the Communications Manager and Business Operations team. • Perform other duties as assigned by the Head of Youth Development.
